

Dr Mike Hannis

Research Fellow in Environmental Ethics, Bath Spa
University

The World is not made of Capital.

- Metaphors and metrics shape reality – they don't just reflect it.
- Encouraging lasting change requires appeals to values, not to financial self-interest.
- Assuming the impossibility of structural change is pessimism, not pragmatism.